

CHEFA

Connecticut Health & Educational Facilities Authority

Position Title: Senior Associate for Financing and Business Development

Category/Classification: Exempt / Regular Employee

Reports to: Assistant Director, Client Services

Summary/Objective

The Senior Associate for Financing and Business Development plays a critical role in supporting CHEFA's bond issuance and financing initiatives, providing essential portfolio management to support proposed bond issuances. The role is also responsible for client development and outreach to build pipelines of potential transactions for CHEFA and CHEFA CDC's bond issuance, direct lending programs, and tax credit programs.

Applicants must submit a cover letter including salary requirements and resume to jobs@chefa.com.

Essential Functions

Portfolio Management:

- Oversee bond issue transaction process from pre-application to closing.
- Collaborate with Client Services team members to gather and analyze all relevant financial data for a client or prospect, to assess an applicant's creditworthiness, including analyzing and summarizing financial statements, historical financial performance, and credit metrics, and identifying risks and mitigants.
- Prepare credit memo submissions and present transactions to the Authority's Board of Directors for approval.
- Review requisite bond loan documents for conformity with approved credit terms and conditions and the Authority's policies. Work closely with the Authority's outside counsel and advisors, as applicable.
- Properly maintain documentation and necessary business records.
- Prepare Municipal Market Overview report and present at Board meetings.

Client Development and Outreach:

- Take the lead role in business development activities, including identifying and cultivating financing opportunities, supporting the development of pipeline opportunities for bond transactions, direct lending programs, and other financing programs.
- Contribute to the development of marketing plans and materials for CHEFA and CHEFA CDC's financing programs.
- Strengthen and expand external relationships with local and state funding agencies, private financial institutions, and other program partners.
- Assist in the development of direct lending funding and technical assistance goals and plans that enhance CHEFA and CHEFA CDC's programs and align with the overall strategic plan.

General Functions:

- Provide superior customer service while establishing professional rapport with the Authority's client institutions and other constituents.
- Perform other duties in support of the Authority's general operations.
